

Peer Reviewer Awards

The CJRT is pleased to introduce an award to recognize the contribution of the volunteer peer reviewer who provided consistently constructive feedback and guidance to help authors enhance their papers in presentation and content.

2021 Winner

Congratulations to our inaugural winner, Danielle McDonagh, RRT, BSc, BA, MA!
Thank you, Danielle, for your time and expertise in reviewing papers in 2021.
Amazing work!

“Participating in the peer-review process for the CJRT is incredibly rewarding. It is a joy and privilege to review the innovative articles, reviews, and research offered to the CJRT. In addition to helping to ensure the credibility and integrity of the work, peer-reviewing allows me to hone my critical thinking skills. It is incredibly gratifying to read the final work when published in the CJRT.”

To see a list of all reviewers who contributed reviews in 2021, please visit our Thank You page.